

Milton Public Library Partners with Arts Milton for Culture Days 2024

Milton, ON — Milton Public Library (MPL) is excited to partner with Arts Milton for Culture Days 2024, celebrating this year's theme, World Dance. From September to October, community members are invited to participate in free, family-friendly events that showcase the diverse cultural traditions that make Milton unique.

Programs will include dance and music performances, drawing workshops, Lego-building, face painting, and more. Milton Public Library will host various creative and engaging events at its branches, encouraging everyone to explore the arts and connect with their community.

"Culture Days is a wonderful opportunity for our community to come together and celebrate the vibrant arts and cultural life that thrives here in Milton. At Milton Public Library, we are proud to partner with Arts Milton to host a variety of inspiring programs that invite creativity, connection, and exploration." said Sarah Douglas-Murray, CEO/Chief Librarian of Milton Public Library. "Through these events, we aim to foster greater understanding and appreciation of the arts and heritage that shape our community, while encouraging everyone to take part in the collective cultural experience. We look forward to welcoming patrons of all ages to join us in this exciting celebration." – Sarah Douglas-Murray, CEO/Chief Librarian, Milton Public Library."

Auleen Carson, President of Arts Milton, added, "'Arts Milton is pleased to present a lineup of free, exciting events for Culture Days, showcasing the vibrant artistic talent in our community and allowing community members of all ages to try their hand at creative activities. The arts have a unique power to bring people together and build community through shared experiences like those offered at Culture Days. Whether it is an activity like drawing, participating in a dance or music event, building Lego or doing face painting, there is something for everyone at Culture Days!'"

About Culture Days: Culture Days is a national celebration of arts and culture that takes place every September and October across Canada. It invites millions to participate in thousands of free activities and events, highlighting the important role that culture plays in our lives and communities. Arts Milton has proudly been a part of Culture Days for 15 years, enriching the Milton community with exciting and accessible artistic experiences.

About MPL: Serving one of the fastest-growing municipalities in North America, Milton Public Library (MPL) is a multi-award winning public library focused on innovation and service excellence. Patrons can visit MPL through three physical branches, Main, Beaty and Sherwood as well as online through www.beinspired.ca. MPL empowers the community to Read. Learn. Create. Connect.

FB: @MiltonPublicLibrary X (formerly known as Twitter): @Milton_Library IG: @miltonpubliclibrary
LinkedIn: Milton Public Library