

Milton Public Library's Annual Book Sale Returns: Discover Great Reads and Support Your Library

Milton, ON – The much-anticipated Annual Book Sale hosted by Milton Public Library (MPL) is back, offering thousands of pre-loved books and media at unbeatable prices. This year's sale will run from November 9 to 15 (or until supplies last) at the Main Library, 1010 Main St. East, in the Teal Room. The sale will be open Monday to Thursday from 9:30 AM to 9:00 PM and Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from 9:30 AM to 5:00 PM.

With over 9,000 titles spanning fiction, non-fiction, children's literature, and more, there's something for everyone. In addition to books, patrons can browse a wide range of DVDs, audiobooks, and other media. Books are priced at just $2 each, while A/V materials like CDs and DVDs are available for $1. For even more savings, fill an entire box for $10 or an MPL tote bag for $15.

In today's economic climate, the Annual Book Sale offers a much-needed opportunity for families and individuals to save on books and entertainment. Whether you're building a personal library or seeking affordable gifts for the holiday season, this sale makes it easy to find something special without breaking the bank.

Cash, debit, and credit cards will be accepted for added convenience. All proceeds from the sale directly support MPL's programs and services, enabling the library to continue offering a wide range of inspirational, educational, and community-focused initiatives. From early literacy programs and technology workshops to cultural events and newcomer services, the funds raised help ensure MPL can keep enriching the lives of Milton residents.

"Our Annual Book Sale is one of the many ways MPL fosters community spirit," said Sarah Douglas-Murray, CEO of Milton Public Library. "This event is perfect for readers of all ages and interests, so bring your family, friends, and book lovers alike."

Don't miss this opportunity to find hidden gems, save money, and support your library!
